Exposures

On August 15, 2022, a military and historical picnic was organized in Wola Rzedzinska, during which an exhibition of the project „Trails of Hope. Odyssey of Freedom”.

The Cracow Branch of the Institute of National Remembrance, together with the Tarnów District Museum, the Tarnów Starosty and the Tarnów Municipality, presented an exhibition of the project and presented the assumptions of the educational project „The Home Army - Poland, I'm in Love". In addition, at five stands, visitors could see equipment of the Home Army partisan unit, download educational materials, take part in activities, and buy books, games and comic books.

At 4 p.m. a parade of reconstruction groups and Polish Army vehicles began, which presented themselves before an audience of several thousand people. The family meeting in Wola Rzedzinska closed with a concert of patriotic songs prepared by the Cracow Philharmonic and a performance by the band Enej.
